WHAT IS EXTRA CARE?

'Extra Care' housing is designed for older people who need more support than sheltered housing offers but who would still like to be independent.

Extra Care housing offers self-contained properties let on normal assured tenancies, with a range of communal facilities, including a restaurant serving midday meals, an assisted bathroom, guest suite, plus staff available on site 24 hours a day to provide care and support with daily tasks like getting up, washing and dressing.

Curo provides a Sheltered Housing Officer who helps to arrange social activities, appointments and offers other general support, while care staff are on the premises at all times to provide personal care. Restaurant facilities offer a choice of lunchtime meals and friends or family are welcome to come along. All our Extra Care premises have hotel-style guest suites for visitors.
